"Only in Sleep"

*Only in sleep I see their faces, children I played with when I was a child,
Louise comes back with her brown hair braided, Annie with ringlets warm and wild.
Only in sleep, time is forgotten: what may have come to them, who can know?
Yet we played last night as long ago, and the dollhouse stood at the turn of the stair.
The years had not sharpened their smooth, round faces,
I met their eyes and found them mild.
Do they, too, dream of me, I wonder,
And for them am I too a child?*

Alma Mater

The Cedar Cliffs look down on the fairest,
And the best school of all.
They echo back the songs as we sing them and loyally call,
The mountains, the valleys, the home and the throng.
All are for you dear old Reynolds, keep your heart brave and strong.
