Christine Cutshall and Stephanie Knox, Lead AIG Facilitators
Academically/Intellectually Gifted Department
Buncombe County Schools
175 Bingham Road
Asheville, NC 28806

Mrs. Cutshall and Mrs. Knox:

We value and appreciate your leadership in the Academically/Intellectually Gifted Department's development of the AIG Plan 2019-2022 and associated support materials. The comprehensive process of assessing AIG subgroup needs, researching current trends in gifted education, communicating with stakeholders, eliciting feedback from all educational partners, and meshing these various components with North Carolina required legislation is a lofty task. We recognize the collaborative efforts of the entire AIG Department.

Upon receipt of the 2019-2022 AIG Plan draft, our Board of Education representatives have read and reviewed all materials. It is the pleasure of the Buncombe County Schools Board of Education to approve the Academically/Intellectually Gifted Services Plan 2019 – 2022 on this date.

We anticipate great success in our system's continual efforts to support the varied needs of advanced learners in Buncombe County, and we look forward to sharing those successes with our many families and community partners.

Sincerely,

Tony Baldwin, Ed. D.
